About Us Conservation Visitor's Guide Support

New Advisory Committee for the West Grand Lake Forest Project.

Downeast Lakes Land Trust is pleased to announce a new Advisory Committee is joining the effort to complete the West Grand Lake Community Forest Project. "With two years to go in our campaign to expand local stewardship to 56,000 acres of community forest, this is a great time to bring new energy and ideas to our effort," said Executive Director, Mark Berry. "We're honored that such distinguished leaders are committed to the cause."

Committee members are Steve Blackmer, Peter Paine, Gus Speth, and Maryanne Waldman. Click here to learn more about the Advisory Committee.

Nature Clubs Underway at Area Schools

From tracking and snowshoeing to making bird feeders, the Downeast Lakes Land Trust is leading students from Indian Township, Princeton, and Woodland in a series of after school adventures designed to build natural history skills and spark a passion for the outdoors.

Downeast Lakes Land Trust offers activities year-round focused on the natural and cultural history of the Downeast Lakes Region. Programs range from informal community events to formal education lessons aligned to the Common Core Standards and STEM goals.
