Festival Weekend in Grand Lake Stream

It's Festival weekend! The Grand Lake Stream Guides Association starts the festivities with a full lobster dinner, two seatings at 5 pm and 6 pm on Friday. Tickets are $20 and available at the Pine Tree Store. The Folk Art Festival opens at 10 am on Saturday, and is packed with arts, crafts, and live music until 5 pm. Visit Downeast Lakes Land Trust's booth, and check the complete music schedule . Then take a break for a chicken dinner with the Guides at 5 or 6 pm, tickets $15, and come back for a concert by David Mallett at 7:30 PM. Tickets for the show are $15 and available at the festival grounds Saturday.

Sunday the Folk Art Festival continues from 10 am to 5 pm, and the Downeast Lakes Land Trust thanks our supporters with our annual picnic and meeting at 12 noon. Reservations are required, contact us if you have not sent an RSVP, or make plans for next year!

West Grand Lake Race Sunday, August 7th

Bring family or friends and get to Grand Lake Stream Sunday, August 7th, for the 7th Annual West Grand Lake Race!

A small race on a big lake! You can choose to race 4, 6, or 12 miles. All three courses start and finish in Grand Lake Stream and are round trips around islands. Enjoy the scenic shoreline and the crystal clear waters before returning to Grand Lake Lodge for a cookout lunch. Make it a leisurely trip, or try to set a new course record... the choice is yours.

Registration is from 9:30 to 10:30 am at the boat landing at the west side of the dam on Shaw Street in Grand Lake Stream.
